Evaluation Questions: (feel free to attach additional pages if necessary)

1. Does this study unit provide you with sufficient background information to assist you in teaching the lessons? If not, what materials would help you prepare?

2. Do you feel the lessons included are appropriate for general high school students? If not, how could the lessons be made more appropriate?

3. Are the lessons appropriate for a 40 minute class period? Should they include more information? Less information?

4. Are the student evaluation criteria appropriate? If not, what should the evaluation criteria contain?

5. Do you feel the video is able to be incorporated into the study unit? In what lesson did you use it? Would additional video footage be of interest to you?

6. Would you prefer that the “Additional Readings” be provided with the study unit? Did you use any of these materials listed there? If so, what did you use? How difficult was it for you to obtain these materials? Are there any materials in this list that you evaluated that you don’t think should be listed there?

7. Would you like a suggested activities section in the study unit? Would you like contact information for individuals who could provide a presentation on Lorine and her work?

8. Do you think the lessons in this unit will inspire interest in Lorine Niedecker and her poetry? Do you think other teachers in the state will be interested in teaching about Lorine Niedecker when they see these lesson plans? If not, what could we add/subtract to enliven this study unit?

8. Please comment on any other aspect of your experience with this study unit.

9. Would you be interested in helping us market the final draft of this study unit to other teachers in Wisconsin? Do you have suggestions for us on effective marketing of instructional materials to teachers/school districts?
